held for court on the charge of assault and battery. Cook owns a farm tenanted by William Nicely. The men were to have had a settlement a few days ago, and they became engaged in a quarrel. Cook, who was using a hatchet at the time, is said to have rushed at Nicely with the hatchet drawn in a threatening manner, whereupon Nicely knocked him down with a large stone. Recovering, Cook and twe boys chased Nicely down the road, the latter falling against a gatepost and boys chased Nicely down the road, the latter falling against a gatepost and injuring himself badly, only to be set upon by Gook and his companions. When the hearing was held yesterday, Nicely was fined $10 and costs, and Cook was held in bond for a hearing next Saturday. When they appeared in court, both men had their heads swathed in bandages. Much feeling has been stirred up among the friends of Gook and Nicely.
